

Mekdes Normand

Marketing Internship at Blank Street Coffee.

PROFILE

01

Working at Blank Street Coffee for the past two years has given me such a strong understanding of the brand, the customer demographic, and the kind of experience people come to Blank Street for beyond just coffee. Through working across busy stores, events, and customer facing roles, I've developed a really natural understanding of the brand's tone, energy, and community focused identity. I'm an outgoing, proactive person who genuinely enjoys connecting with people, bringing energy into a space, and contributing ideas wherever I can. I'm someone who likes to get involved, take initiative, and create positive experiences, which is why I'm so excited about the opportunity to bring my experience and perspective into a marketing focused role within the company.
